Dr. David's Daily Devotionals
July 14, 2026, Tuesday, J5 OT, 1 Sam 17

NOTICE:

Should a devotional not be posted each weekday morning, the problem is likely due to internet malfunction (which has been happening lately. . . not Dr. David's malfunction.) So do not worry. . . stay tuned and the devotional will be available as soon as possible.

DR. DAVID'S COMMENT(S)-

Many Scripture Versions are on line. Reading from different versions can bring clarity to your study.

Good internet Bible resources are. . .

https://www.blueletterbible.org
https://www.biblestudytools.com/

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE -

J5 OT Passages (see the questions below)

DR. DAVID'S QUESTIONS. . .

1) Who was going to War with the Israelites in 1st Samuel 17: 1?

2) How tall was Goliath in first Samuel 17: 4?

3) What did Goliath want in one Samuel 17:10?

4) Can you do the math . . . How many we're in the army and how many were left at home (Do your calculations from 1st Samuel 17:12-13) ?

5) How had the war progressed in one Samuel 17:16?

6) What was David's second question in one Samuel 17:26?

7) What did David say to King Saul in one Samuel 17:32?

8) What was David's resume in one Samuel 17:34-36a?

9) What was David's reason for dispatching the giant according to 1 Samuel 17:36b?

10) Where did David place his confidence in First Samuel 17:37?

11) What was David's primary Weapon in 1st Samuel 17:45?

12) What will those gathered know in one Samuel 17:47?

(Be sure to identify your thoughts and the thoughts of other sources you find (Study Bible notes, internet sites, commentaries, etc) in formulating your concise answer should you ever discuss this with others or should you want to send your thoughts to someone.

PRAYER- (Write out a simple prayer regarding your findings.)